Moderator Biography:

My name is Dr. Ali M. Khuraibet, I am an Associate Professor at the Environmental Health Department, College of Health Sciences, PAAET. I worked very successfully in research and academic institutions, POWs organizations and with the private sector. My environmental consultancy career led me to provide scientific environmental services and to cooperate with major international companies, major governmental organizations and major local engineering companies. My passion for the environment and sustainability made me carry-out many environmental campaigns, organize Earth Days activities, produce environmental documentaries and be present and travel to covering the environmental and health impacts of Kuwait Liberation War (1990-1991), Iraq Liberation War (2003) and Lebanon War (2006).

My professional career allowed me to work with top decision makers. I was asked by the Ex-Prime Minister of UK team, Mr. Tony Blair, to assist him in his Report for Kuwait: "Vision 2030/35". I was also asked to accompany him for one full day in a helicopter flight and write and an environmental report for his study.

I was awarded significant environmental awards for my role in protecting Kuwait's environment from major Kuwaiti academics and government organizations such as Kuwait University and Kuwait Oil Company.
